

Information exchange system for plant quarantine of Japan

Nobuyuki SHIBATA,
Plant Protection Division,
Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries, JAPAN

Training workshop on capacity building in information exchange
For the Asia Region (PART I)
Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, 4-9 July 2011

TOPIC

I . Recent amendments of regulations relating to phytosanitary measures in Japan

II . National mechanism of official information exchange

I . Recent amendments of regulations relating to phytosanitary measures in Japan

- Revision of import quarantine (G/SPS/N/JPN/266)
 - Establishment of the quarantine pest list

This amendment was adopted on 7 March 2011, and will take effect on 7 September 2011

Contents of the revision (7.Sep.2011~)

Establishment of the quarantine pest list

Current

Quarantine pests

Designating only non-quarantine pests

Revised

Listing
Quarantine
pests directly

Non-quarantine pests list will be remained for a while

Based on PRA

- Animals
509 species
- Plants
215 species

PRA ongoing

- Animals
238 family
- Plants
362 genus
- Viruses and Viroids
- Parasitic Plants

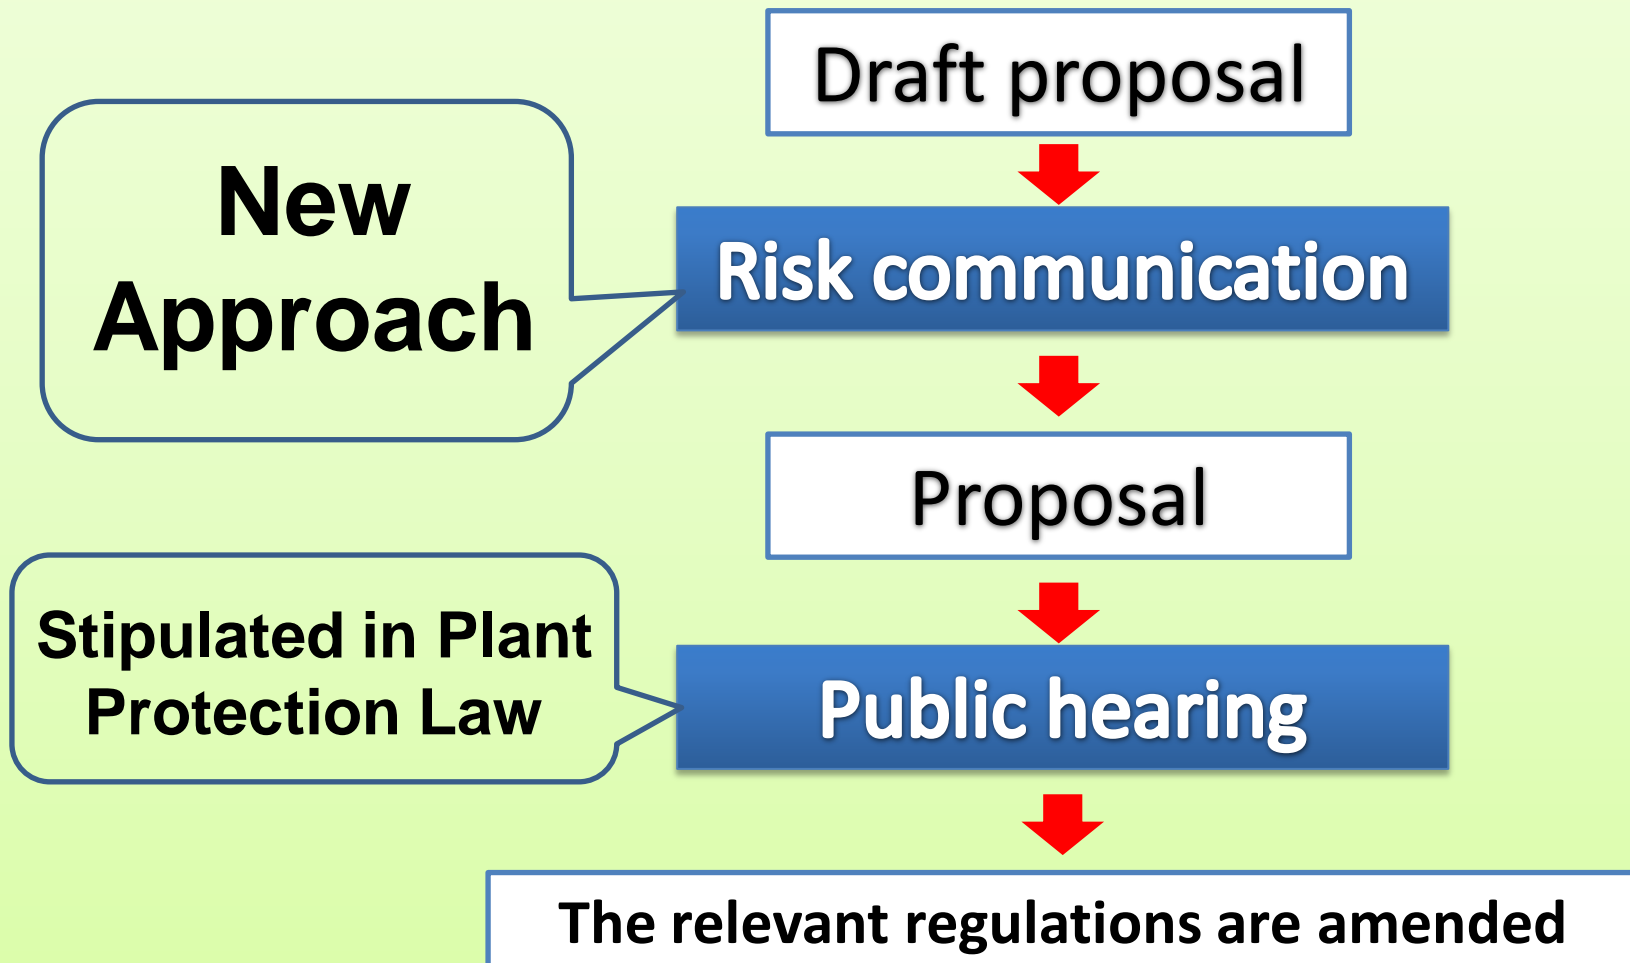

II . National mechanism of official information exchange

Stakeholders' engagement and participation

- In reviewing phytosanitary regulations
- In developing international standard

Stakeholders' engagement and participation in reviewing phytosanitary regulations

Procedure of establishment of the quarantine pest list

Stakeholders' engagement and participation in developing international standards

Draft ISPMs are circulated for member consultation

- Have a meeting to review and exchange opinions with related authorities, stakeholders and scientists
- Provide the opportunity of submitting comments to draft ISPMs
- ISPMs are considered to be well-understood by stakeholders

Thank you for your attention !

Nobuyuki SHIBATA